I. POLICY

Agents whose law enforcement authority is suspended by the FED are prohibited from exercising extra-jurisdictional authority.

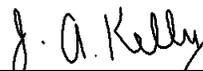

Agents acting in a law enforcement capacity outside FED's jurisdiction must act in conformance with this agency's rules and regulations.

II. EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

Agents employed by the Comptroller of Maryland, when acting under lawful authority beyond the limits of the FED jurisdictions, shall have all the pension, relief disability, worker's compensation and other benefits enjoyed by them while performing their duties within the jurisdictional limits of the FED.

When acting under the authority granted by this law, any officer/agent shall have all the immunities from liability and exemptions as that of a State Police officer in addition to any other immunities and exemptions to which the officer/agent may otherwise be entitled.

- ## III. CANCELLATION: None. This is a new issue as of 09/08/08.
